Roles & Responsibilities

The USAV AAC roles & responsibilities are:

- Serve as a vehicle for athlete engagement.
- Endeavor to protect the rights of athletes.
- Provide athlete feedback.
- Build and establish relationships among the three disciplines.
- Identify future athlete board representative candidates and introduce athletes to USAV's governance structure.
- Serve as SafeSport and U.S. Anti-Doping Agency (USADA) ambassadors and advocates.
- Identify athlete representatives to the various Assemblies and Committees.
- Engage athletes in USA Volleyball Foundation activities.
- Develop pathways for athletes within the structure of USAV.

Selection Process

Selection: Nominations and self-nominations for each position shall be solicited by USAV. Prior to any election, athlete candidates must disclose any felony convictions, or any other periods of ineligibility served in sport such as violations of anti-doping codes, the Athlete Classification Code (Paralympic only), or SafeSport violations. Each position will be elected in accordance with USAV Bylaws C. International Beach Athletes shall elect the Beach positions; International Indoor Athletes shall elect the Indoor positions and International Sitting Athletes shall elect the Sitting positions.

The Athlete receiving the second highest number of votes shall be designated the "Alternate" for that position and be invited to attend meetings in the event the elected Athlete ("Primary") is unable to attend. If the Primary is attending a meeting, the Alternate is eligible to also attend, but at their own expense.

Eligibility Requirement

Minimum Criteria: In order to be eligible to run and/or vote for Sitting AAC representative, athletes must be international sitting athletes as defined below:

Within the ten (10) years preceding election, represented the United States in the Paralympic Games, Parapan American Games, World Para Volley World Championships or a USOPC Designated Operation Gold event.

General Qualifications: Each AAC representative shall possess the following general qualifications in addition to meeting the Minimum Criteria:

1. Be a current registrant of USAV in good standing, registered either through the USAV Regional Volleyball Association (RVA) in which the member resides or with the Corporation (USAV);
2. Have cleared the USAV-approved Background Screen;
3. Be SafeSport trained; and,
4. Have a currently signed and reviewed USAV Conflict of Interest Disclosure form on file with USAV.
